Principal's Report – Jill Sunderman

September Review & Current Initiatives - Hilary VanderMolen

- Glow Golf raised $275, next year scheduled on 9/13/2024
- New classrooms - Teacher wish lists - The PTO helped to fund these and get them everything they need
- Positive Behavior Interventions and Support (PBIS) Team - Amanda Jobe
 - Discussed making Hyde Park Heroes more inclusive by providing window clings or something similar so that students without yards or in apartments can also display their award.
 - Noise Control in hallways during transition times.

Committee Reports

- Financial Update – Kevin VanderMolen
 - Increased insurance for pumpkin chuck (because of alcohol being serviced)
 - Taxes are filed
- Fundraising – Caroline Gregoire
 - 3 Socials remaining (1, 6, k) - You can purchase up tickets up to the day of the event. It's a great way to meet parents and raise funds for the school!
 - Fundraisers coming up: Urban Air & Solstice
 - Read-a-thon goes until 10/24 with the minutes due by 10/27
 - Will end on Friday with the character parade with book buddies.

- o Oct 16-20 Book Fair in Mrs. Jasper's old room. Volunteer sign ups coming soon!
- o Pumpkin Chuck will have a beer truck from Mad Tree and PTO and Sports Boosters will split the profits equally
- o Pre-sale for tickets closes 10/27
- o 100 yard signs have been ordered that can be used every year for more community engagement
- Volunteering – Jacquie Purcell
 - o Lots to volunteer for coming up!
 - Teacher Snacks for conference Nights
 - Pumpkin Chuck (will need LOTS of volunteers)
 - Book Fair
- Athletics – Jessica Leimbach
 - o The raffle for gift cards has started. This year has been really hard with not having our gym space and volleyball alone has cost over $7000, so it's more important than ever to raise funds for sports this year. The team is working so hard to find suitable gym space for all the teams
 - o Winter sports registration closed on Saturday with 170 kids registered...more than they've ever had so once again the work has begun to identify courts
 - o Home basketball games will be at Silverton again
 - o Crosstown women's shoot out is Nov 10 and over 350 people expressed interest in attending on the basketball sign up. They are hoping to get the kids involved in the game somehow!
 - o Spring Sports - already working on gym space
- Resource Corner - Alyse Averdick
 - o Homebase - a new option for after school care
 - o Oct 12, Math Night - still needs volunteers
 - o Still looking for community partners
- Diversity, Equity and Inclusion - Lavonda Kirkland
 - o Have 7 members currently (would like to cap at 10)

- o Looking to add more staff to the committee before reaching out to parents.
- o Have some people collecting data to see where help is needed.
- LSDMC – Ed Paff, Amy Lovelace, Rachel Harrison
 - o Met on 9/19
 - o Ed Paff is chair, Rachel Harrison is co-chair and Amy Lovelace is Secretary
 - o please take the climate survey (jen will put in newsletter)
 - o meetings are the third tuesday of each month and the next meeting is tues oct 17 at 2:30
